Workplace safety policy

All employees must wear a hard hat and high visibility vest in the loading area. Inspect protective equipment before every shift. Report hazards to the supervisor. Safety training takes place every Monday. New staff attend induction before entering the warehouse.